Judge John W. Sweeney, counsel for Willis Almy, entered a demurrer to the obmplaint against his client at the the obmplaint against his client at the Friday session of the third district court. Judge Oliver H. Williams presiding. Almy is charged with keeping with intent to sell, offering for sale, and selling to Vincent C. Stillman, spirituous and intoxicating liquors adulterated with methyl alcohol. Judge Sweeney claimed the complaint was had as two officers were specified in one count, and that the charge of keeping with intent to sell was a general term and not applicable to Mr. Stillman. It was necessary to be specified in cases of this kind, he claimed, and that every word in the complaint means something, and that it was essential to state just what kind of liquor is alleged to have been sold

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustaclian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a sumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

STONINGTON BIG LIQUOR RAID IN WESTERLY Tablet to be Unveiled to Judge Wheel-er—Effort to Increase Fund for Tree!

John Rahaley, a member of the Meriden fire department for thirty-seveen years, and driver for Hose Company No. 4, and who was recently killed by being kicked by one of the horses as he was about to enter the stall, was once a resident of Westerly. He was a brother of Mrs. Michael Shea and Mrs. Daniel Carey of Westerly, and Mrs. Daniel Carey of Westerly, and Mrs. Daniel Murphy now of Barre, Vt.

In the report of his funeral the Meriden Journal said: "one of the largest funerals of the year was that of Driver John Rahaley of the Wilcox Hose company, who was killed at his station by a kick from a fire horse. The city was represented by Mayor Thomas L. Relly and the fire commissioners the fire department by Chief Roran and other officers, and the drug store the officers found and the Hose company, No. 4, by the entire membership.

There was a solemn high requiem phass in St. Rose church, with Rev. Pohn Cooney celebrant, Rev. S. A. Guinan deacon. Burial was in Sacred Heart cemetery. The bearers were Capt Richard Shaw, Driver T. S. Hagararty, Thomas Hagarty, Michael Walsh and James Kennorchy of No. 4, and Capt. J. F. Donovan of Chemical Engine No. 2. The flower bearers were James and George Rahaley, nephews of decased."

Chief Owen Horan of the fire department said: "In the death of Driver brandy, one gallon demijohn with half a gallon of rum, one gallon demijohn of black cherry brandy, one bottle of Stout, one rum, one gallon demijohn of black cherry brandy, one gallon jug of Cali-fornia brandy, one bottle of Stout, one bottle of Bass ale, and one hundred and sixty-six bottles of select stock

POWERFUL EXPLOSIVE Being Manufactured at Melrose-Safer

Than Dynamite. The American Carlsonite company's experimental works in Melrose were visited Monday by the municipal explosives commission of New York for the purpose of seeing one of the most powerful explosives yet invented manufactured for the first time in America by machinery preparatory to visiting White Plains N. Y., to witness a demonstration of the deadly stuff at the excavation for the West-chester branch of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railrond.

If the machinery had arrived sooner, the company would have begun the manufacture earlier. The company, which was formed last February, selected one of the old gin distilleries at Melrose for its temporary mill owing to the fine location. It is near the railroad line, has a brook running close by, and being settled in the heart of a sandbank, besides being conveniently located offers little danger.
